

Ornamental Trees - MAGNOLIA grandiflora Cultivars

Claudia Wannamaker is a pyramidal, dense and upright specimen 50' + tall.

Description: Brown back selection with medium brown back undersides, flowers at an early age, white. Smaller than normal leaves and flowers. Long flowering season. Leaf is approx. 6" long. Vigorous, uniform branching. Takes shearing well. Forms a broad pyramid.

Height: 50 - 80 feet

Spread: 25 - 35 feet

Growth Rate: Moderate

Growth Habit: Medium broad pyramidal.

Light Requirements: Full sun to partial shade

Soil Type: Most soils, drought tolerant once established.

Salt Tolerance: Moderate

Hardiness Zone: 7 - 10

Landscape Uses: Flowering tree; garden specimen; screen planting; windbreak; street tree when limbed up, espalier.

Unique Characteristics: Ability to withstand snow and ice; small flowers.

General Comments: Selected in 1956 near Orangeburg, South Carolina

